About School

Kingdom Ambassadors Global University, Inc. was established in 2003 by Dr. Arleen A. Fuller. In 2020 this school was incorporated as a non-profit in the State of Ga as an online Christian University to offer degrees to clergy and Christian leaders at an affordable price and accelerated pace. This school is a school of excellence, integrity and honesty. We teach the students that the greatest thing that we can do is to serve the community. We have a concept to make sure each leader is equipped to handle the mental health crisis in America by getting certified as a Mental Health Coach through the American Association of Christian Counselors with special emphasis on First Responder Training. The church is the number one place that the community goes to for help, therefore we want to make sure that the leaders are equipped. This school offers Bachelors, Masters and Doctoral Degrees.

Kingdom Ambassadors Global University is proudly accredited by the Christian College Accreditation Commission International (CCACI). www.ccaci.org CCACI has not sought recognition from United States Department of Education. Student Attendance & Participation:

As a university of post-secondary education, Kingdom Ambassadors Global University (KAGU) takes necessary measures for students to actively involved in attendance and participation online or in person. As an institution of higher learning, our goal for students to be successful and productive upon graduation in their ministries and careers. Professors establish their own policies for attendance and participation stated in each of the course syllabus. Attendance and participation policies are examined case-by-case basis. The student must produce evidence such as illness or extenuating circumstances and arrangements to make up missed assignments during the absence if granted by the professor. Students are responsible for notifying their professors and office of student services of their absence due to an extenuating circumstance or illness prior to the missed class.

Academic Integrity:

Kingdom Ambassadors Global University (KAGU) stands on the values of academic integrity for students to demonstrate honesty and moral character. Academic honesty is the concept of the college based on the academic/-scholarly system. All submitted work must represent the student's own ideas and effort. Plagiarism is a serious matter at Kingdom Ambassadors Global University (KAGU) and will not be tolerated. It is important for students to give credit to others by citing sources while maintaining academic integrity. If the student violates this policy, there will be consequences and result in further action such as a F on assignments and or dismissal from Kingdom Global Ambassadors Institute (KAGU) depending on the circumstances and decision of the Office of Student Services.

Withdrawals:

Students at Kingdom Ambassadors Global University (KAGU) are required to speak directly with their professors for considering withdrawing from any courses and suggestions for alternatives. Please refer to the courses class schedule for the last date to withdraw from courses. Students are also required to speak with the registrar and the Office of Student Services for courses withdraw. After that date, students cannot withdraw and will receive a letter grade even if they stop attending class.
